VEXON UK

OUR VISION

Founded in 2014 and trading as Vexon Energy, Vexon Wines is dedicated to reshaping the landscape of wines and spirits. Our unwavering commitment lies in crafting unparalleled, premium beverages that defy conventions. Our portfolio stands as a testament, proving that within the realm of wines and spirits, not all creations are equal.

OUR MISSION

Our brand is built on a solid reputation, forged through deep product knowledge, professionalism, and partnerships. This achievement is the outcome of diligent efforts to consistently exceed customer expectations globally. Our primary focus revolves around delivering top-notch products and services, maintaining open honest communication, and refining our practices where we can. Fuelled by a genuine passion for our work, we actively add value by striving for optimal results. At the core of Vexon's endeavours lies a deep respect for relationships, with the consumer always at the heart of what we do.

DIVERSITY, EQUALITY & INCLUSION

Vexon is committed to providing a workplace that values diversity, equality and inclusion. We strongly believe in respect for all irrespective of race, gender, age, religion or sexual orientation and we seek to promote equality in all our endeavours.

OUR PRODUCTS

With a customer-centric focus, our products undergo a meticulous process.

We hand-harvest grapes ensuring precise stem removal and separation from clusters. This attention to detail extends to the alcohol and lactic acid fermentation process resulting in wines that embody our commitment to excellence.

Our dedicated team consistently delivers high quality products ensuring a unique experience for our valued customers. This accomplishment is a testament to our collaboration with our partner winery in Lovech, Northern Bulgaria which is rooted in tradition since 1947.

Cheers to a legacy of craftsmanship and to an unwavering pursuit of extraordinary taste!
